

MIKE WESTENDORF

Speaker Series

Whether singing on stage, leading worship, presenting at conferences or working with any of God's people, Mike's mission remains the same.

"to educate and encourage others through experience – a shared experience with Jesus Christ"

Are you looking for a presenter, speaker or specific topic for your next leadership meeting, bible study, workshop or conference? What about some new ideas for your youth, parent, teacher, men's, women's or retiree groups? With a huge heart for ministry and passion for serving others, Mike Westendorf is offering the following list of topics for consideration for your next speaking engagement.

As a lifelong WELS member, Mike is a husband and father of three, who has been a meteorologist for the past 16 years, speaking to people through media and creating stories. He is a college campus ministry innovator and music director in Milwaukee, speaks at conferences, serves as a ministry consultant, is a professional Christian music artist, a member of Wisconsin Area Music Industry (WAMI), and has toured locally as well as nationwide. Mike's personable style helps him relate to audiences of all ages.

Speaker Topics

When is Your Time of Grace?

Did it happen already, will it be coming soon? Actually your time of grace is now - learn how to make the most of it.

The Role of Siblings in a Family

Mike speaks to the emotions of kids growing up in a family and takes a look at biblical examples of sibling behavior.

In Him, Love Him, For Him

God wants us to be in His word. When we do that we are loving Him and when we love Him we live for Him by serving others.

Honest Me plus Honest He = Honesty

Why is honesty so difficult in this world? Only when we are honest with ourselves and honest with God, can we experience true honesty.

Introducing New Music Styles in Worship

As a professional Christian recording artist, music director and worship leader, Mike has experienced blessings and challenges in music ministry. Let him share with you what works and how, when changing music styles in worship.

Share the Hope – Reaching In to Help Reach Out

As Christians we aren't supposed to keep the good news of salvation to ourselves, yet often times we don't know how to reach out in our own communities. Explore how easy it is to find common ground and learn how to Share the Hope.

Hey Weatherman, can't you do something about this weather?

Being a meteorologist tends to get one in trouble on bad weather days. Find out more about predicting weather patterns and seeing God's hand in weather situations.

Why is a Man Speaking at a Women's Conference?

I represent your husband, brother, father, children, boss, fill-in-the-blank, all of whom have probably caused you to experience both suffering and joy. Get a Christian man's perspective on how men co-exist in your world.

Our Identity in Christ

Who are you? Better yet, who does God want you to be? We are all unique individuals, created by God with different gifts and abilities. Look for your true identity in Him.

Identity Crisis - The High School Years

Mike has been spending time mentoring high school students, learning how to best serve them spiritually. It's time to get both teens and parents on the same page in order to avoid an identity crisis.

Identity Crisis - The College Years

From his experience in campus ministry, Mike sees the struggles students go through. At the same time it is also important to see the challenges facing parents. Take a look at college life from two different but important perspectives.

Bridging the Gap for the 16-22 year old generation

Did you know that most kids ages 16-22 have a higher percentage of falling away from church and their relationship with Jesus? Bridgeway is about how we connect kids to the journey and how we as "the church" connect to them.

Life's About the Journey

I need your description for this one so it doesn't sound like the Time of Grace one. You always talk about the journey, but what do you want people to know about it?
